FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Med-Trans Acquiring SevenBar Aviation

Denton, Texas, March 28, 2019 - Med-Trans Corporation, a leading air medical transport company, is acquiring SevenBar Aviation, a privately-owned medical flight company offering fixed and rotor wing airlift services to a broad array of healthcare organizations throughout the nation. SevenBar has a fleet of seven jet and turboprops and five helicopters providing services in six states.

Headquartered in Dallas, Texas, SevenBar has bases in Main, Massachusetts, New Mexico, North Carolina, Texas and Virginia. It has nearly 100 employees and has been in business for 70 years. The transaction is expected to close soon.

"SevenBar Aviation's commitment to its communities, patients and health care provider partners along with its geographic footprint fits nicely into Med-Trans's strategic vision and nationwide profile," said Med-Trans President Rob Hamilton. "The team at Med-Trans is very much looking forward to working with the leadership and dedicated employees of SevenBar."

SevenBar President and Chief Operating Office Kim Montgomery said, "Our business will thrive and our mission will continue as a result of our new partnership with Med-Trans Corporation and its approach to providing air medical transports to thousands of patients. Our medical partners and our employees are looking forward to this transition."
